Re: MB Docket No. 04-233

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Chicago Canine Rescue Foundation (CCRF) was founded in 2001 to help find permanent, loving homes for homeless dogs in our city. In just over five years, our dedicated organization has saved the lives of over 1,400 dogs, cats, kittens and puppies. CCRF assists the animals that are the most vulnerable- the dogs and cats that are slated for euthanasia because they are too old, too young, have special needs (treatable or permanent), or have simply been overlooked for too long by potential adopters at other shelters. CCRF receives no public funding and is therefore entirely dependent on donations from individuals and businesses.

Our major annual fundraiser, MuttStrut, was enormously successful last year (September 2007) and we owe a great deal of gratitude in that respect to LOVE FM 100.3. They were more than willing to post our event on their website and we had the on-site promotions team there as well. Their positive attitudes and enthusiasm for our event and organization was noticed and appreciated by not only our volunteer staff, but also the attendees at the event.

I am not only a fan of 100.3 because of their involvement in our event, but am an avid listener and partake in many events around Chicagoland due to the wonderful PSAs I hear on the station. It is obvious they make a genuine and concerted effort to make a positive difference in their community.

I truly feel 100.3 LOVE FM helped serve our needs and that we see no need for additional rules or reporting requirements that insert federal oversight of the process of broadcasters serving the community.

Respectfully submitted,
